

Is it a puppet class? Is it a music class? Is it a dance class? Is it a French class? Muriel's Songs and Puppets French class is all of these and much more. She is creative and inspiring, dynamic and patient and her classes are 200% fun.

My daughter Elisa started Muriel's class at 14 months old and she has learnt so much in one semester already: she walks like an elephant, she runs after bubbles, she shows her body parts with feathers and as she grows and develops her character, there is one very special song that lives with us every day: 'Monsieur Oui, Monsieur Non'.

How many toddlers don't want to keep mittens or gloves on during winter?, Muriel's songs inspired us so much that we replicated 'Monsieur Oui, Monsieur Non' on each of her mittens: 2 colored eyes, 1 button nose, 1 sticker mouth that reads 'Oui' and 'Non' and of course, we need to sing the song to her. It works every time we go outside and her hands don't get cold anymore because singing and playing 'Monsieur Oui, Monsieur Non' is so much fun compared to just put mittens on!

Thanks to Muriel for making our lives funnier every Wednesday.
